From Broadway, where they recently were the featured dancers at City Center in the revival of "Grand Hotel", a tremendous treat is in store for true tango aficionados and all those who enjoy great dancers when this exciting couple who today are considered the world's greatest Argentine Tango dancers perform at the Premier Ballroom's monthly event.

Cervila & Garcia are one of the most explosive tango couples over the entire globe. They are no strangers to the New York stage having also been featured in the hit "Tango Argentina", at Lincoln Center and NY's Town Hall.

Cervila, who is referred to by his stage name "Junior" and is called "the Gene Kelly of Latin dance", spent a year with the show of Julio Iglesias and was selected to do a private tango show on tour with the Rolling Stones in Argentina. He filmed for the BBC dancing with Deborah Bull, the prima ballerina of the Royal Ballet.

Garcia danced worldwide for two years with Argentina's greatest tango companies and has given seminars and taught lessons in 14 countries. She was the dancer in the Argentine Pavilion in various Asian cities.
